

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of Nursing

USASK.CA/NURSING

Course Title: NURS 221.3 – Patient and Family Centered Care in Clinical Practice

Pre-Requisites: All term one and two level courses in year two.

Course Description: Opportunities to demonstrate critical thinking skills in the performance of nursing interventions necessary for the maintenance of patient safety, comfort, and physiological integrity in clinical situations.

Intent:

The learner will:

1. Use appropriate techniques and interventions in the provision of patient care.
2. Apply knowledge and skills for the safe administration of medications.
3. Apply critical thinking and creativity skills to support professional judgement and decision making in developing and implementing plans of care.
4. Organize and manage patient care for individual and multiple patients.

Content:

- Clinical Setting
- Safe and Competent Practice
- Ethics
- Evidence informed practice and quality improvement
- Medication examination
- Diagnostics examination
- Care planning