Assistant, Associate or Full Professor

The College of Nursing, University of Saskatchewan invites applications from qualified individuals for full time, tenure track Assistant, Associate or Full Professors. To meet the dynamic and exciting growth of our nursing programs, these positions are available at either our Saskatoon or Prince Albert campuses.

The College of Nursing specializes in community-engaged health and nursing, health equity, and health systems and education research. We seek to be leaders in innovative technologies related to teaching and learning. Our "Learn Where You Live" approach to nursing education delivery is unique in Western Canada. We foster the development of rural and remote nursing education, interprofessional education, and Indigenous collaboration. College of Nursing researchers seek to improve health for individuals, families, and communities locally and globally. The College of Nursing has vibrant, nationally recognized Nurse Practitioner Programs. Doctoral prepared Nurse Practitioner candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Candidates for tenure-track Assistant, Associate or Full Professor faculty positions must have doctoral preparation, be eligible for registration with College of Registered Nurses of Saskatchewan, and have an identified program of research/scholarship. BE WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS

The University of Saskatchewan is strongly committed to a diverse and inclusive workplace that empowers all employees to reach their full potential. All members of the university community share a responsibility for developing and maintaining an environment in which differences are valued and inclusiveness is practiced. The university welcomes applications from individuals who will contribute to the diversity of our community. In consideration of the University's strategic directions and Equity, Diversity and Inclusion priorities, the University relies on section 56 of the Saskatchewan Human Rights Code to give preference in employment to Indigenous applicants. Applicants who self-declare Indigenous identity, are expected to provide supporting evidence of their Indigenous identity and community relationships. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. The University has a reputation for excellence in teaching, research and scholarly activities and offers a full range of undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs to a student population of over 24,000.

We are committed to providing accommodations to individuals with a disability or medical necessity. If you require an accommodation in order to participate in the recruitment process, please notify us and we will work together on the accommodation request.
