

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Locations

The University of Saskatchewan (USask) College of Nursing offers an undergraduate Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree program in a number of locations throughout Saskatchewan.

The USask BSN is a 1 + 3 program. Students take 10 pre-professional year classes of mostly Arts and Science courses before applying to the College of Nursing, where they then complete three years of nursing theory and practice learning.

nursing.usask.ca

