

College of Nursing Faculty Research Excellence Awards Adjudication Rubric

Nominees will be assessed on the information in the nomination package only.

Criterion will be rated on a scale of 0-5; 0 = no evidence; 1 = minimal evidence; 2-3 = moderate evidence; 4 = good evidence; 5 = very strong evidence

Criterion to be considered:

- Contributes to the advancement of the Community-Engaged Health and Nursing Research, Health Equity, or Innovations in Health Systems and Education Research signature area
- Principal and Co-Principal grants awarded
- Evidence of peer-reviewed work
- Evidence of external peer-review funding
- International and national recognition(s)
- Striving to promote EDI in research and/or within a research team
- Enhanced collaborative practice
- Evidence of mentorship and support of graduate students
- Evidence of training and mentorship knowledge mobilization beyond academia
- Meaningful engagement of partners in the research process
- Indigenous research is guided by spirit of reconciliation and co-existence (if applicable)