Off campus housing is available as well, but you'll have to check local listings.

NOTE: The College of Nursing and Lakeland College will not be held legally responsible for any accommodations listed, nor any problems that arise from your landlord, tenant, or roommate(s).

Food and Shopping

The cafeteria at Lakeland College is the onsite restaurant and offers a variety of breakfast and lunch options. There is a convenience store close to the site, as well as grocery stores elsewhere in the city.

Textbooks

You can order textbooks and medical supplies from the Shop USask Bookstore. Under Course Materials, select My Textbooks. To access your textbook list, you will need to enter your NSID (e.g. abc123) and password. The USask Bookstore offers free shipping to your home address sometime in August. More information on this process will be sent via email.

Library Services

As a University of Saskatchewan student, you have remote access to a number of resources through the University of Saskatchewan Library. These can be accessed through the Library Resources channel in your PAWS account or at library.usask.ca.

<https://nursing.usask.ca/library-information/overview.php>

Distance and Distributed Library Services (DDLs) are available at no charge to all University of Saskatchewan students, faculty, and staff living outside Saskatoon. The library will supply materials from their collections in response to requests submitted electronically. Books will be mailed with a postage paid return label. Copies of journal articles do not have to be returned. <https://library.usask.ca/ddls/index.php>

Academic Advising and Learning Services

Academic advising is available for all College of Nursing students. Book an appointment and access frequently used forms: <https://nursing.usask.ca/advising/overview>.

Additionally, academic advising and support for Indigenous students is offered through the University of Saskatchewan Community of Aboriginal Nursing (UCAN) group: <https://nursing.usask.ca/aboriginalinitiatives/ucan>.

University of Saskatchewan Student Learning Services are available to all students throughout the academic year at: <https://library.usask.ca/studentlearning>.

Access and Equity Services

Students with disabilities or requiring services or accommodation based on other prohibited grounds - including religion, family status (including pregnancy) or gender identity - can access support through University of Saskatchewan Access and Equity Services

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of Nursing

NURSING.USASK.CA

at <https://students.usask.ca/health/centres/access-equity-services>, as well as over the phone advising services with an academic advisor.

Student Wellness

<https://students.usask.ca/health/health-plans>

Lloydminster students do not pay into the University of Saskatchewan student wellness plan. If you wish to have coverage, you must opt in. Please contact Student Care (www.studentcare.ca) for more details.

Guidance Resources

Through USask's free Guidance Resources program, off-campus and distance students can speak with financial experts, health coaches, mental-health clinicians, and lawyers.

Specialists are also available to provide pre-screened referrals and resources for just about anything on your to-do list. See details in the link below.
