Textbooks

Textbooks and medical supplies can be ordered from the Shop USask Bookstore website. Under Course Materials, select My Textbooks. To access your textbook list, you will need to enter your NSID (e.g. abc123) and password. The USask Bookstore offers free shipping to your home address sometime in August. More information on this process will be sent via email.

Secondhand books may also be purchased from former or upper-year students. Textbooks can also be ordered through amazon.ca. However, please check that the ISBN number is the same as that posted by the professor for the class.

Library Services

As a University of Saskatchewan student, you have remote access to a number of resources through the University of Saskatchewan Library. These can be accessed through the Library Resources channel in your PAWS account at paws.usask.ca or at library.usask.ca.

Distance and Distributed Library Services (DDLs) are available at no charge to all University of Saskatchewan students, faculty, and staff living outside Saskatoon. The library will supply materials from their collections in response to requests submitted electronically. Books will be mailed with a postage paid return label. Copies of journal articles do not have to be returned. <https://library.usask.ca/ddls/index.php>

Academic Advising and Learning Services

Academic advising is available on-site at the College of Nursing Prince Albert Campus. Book an appointment and access frequently used forms: <https://nursing.usask.ca/advising/overview>.

Additionally, academic advising and support for Indigenous students is offered in Prince Albert through the University of Saskatchewan Community of Aboriginal Nursing (UCAN) program: <https://nursing.usask.ca/indigenousoinitatives/ucan.php>.

University of Saskatchewan Student Learning Services are available to all students throughout the academic year at: <https://library.usask.ca/studentlearning>.

Access and Equity Services

Students with disabilities or requiring services or accommodation based on other prohibited grounds - including religion, family status (including pregnancy) or gender identity - can access support through University of Saskatchewan Access and Equity Services at <https://students.usask.ca/health/centres/access-equity-services>, as well through on-site advising services at the Prince Albert campus.

Student Wellness

<https://students.usask.ca/health/health-plans>

Prince Albert students do not pay into the University of Saskatchewan student wellness plan. If you wish to have coverage, you must opt in. Please contact Student Care (www.studentcare.ca) for more details.

Guidance Resources

Through USask's free Guidance Resources program, off-campus and distance students can speak with financial experts, health coaches, mental-health clinicians, and lawyers.

Specialists are also available to provide pre-screened referrals and resources for just about anything on your to-do list. See details in the link below.
